Although this quiz is raising money for a bell charity, no knowledge of campanology is required. Some clues are cryptic, some straight, some fiendish to prevent it being too easy.

Only one answer per question please. The compiler's answers are the only ones accepted. No correspondence will be entered into.

Tie breaker: Please supply a clue to another Hertfordshire place name: In the event of a draw this will be used to decide the winner: points will be awarded for tickling the judges' fancy!

Answers will be published on the St. Michael's Church website
